DRUM OF FORTUNE.

IRISH SWEEPSTAKES DRAW.
FORTUNES AND MISS-FORTUNES.

-Dublin-

Picture. :-

The eyes of the world are turned towards this event.
Lord--

--Powercourt opens the Irish--

--Sweepstakes GRAND NATIONAL draw. Dublin's Lord Mayor--

--is Present. Mr. O'Sheenan announces the prize amounts.

Nurses prepare to draw fortunes--

--for the lucky ones of 112--

--countries. As far as one--

--can judge there's no excitement as the name of the first horse is drawn--

--and handed to Chief of Police Broy.

The large drum stops revolving, and fingers pluck out paper slips worth--

--anything from £600 to £30,000.

There will be hundreds of winners,--

--but millions of losers, said he, with feeling.

At this statement sympathetic groans came from all-- --over the house. Mr. O'Sheenan reads the first name. No, not-- yours. Not mine, but one Mrs. Harrington--

--of Massachusetts. A lady leaves hurriedly. Maybe--

--to wire mother. Maybe to catch a 'bus. I don't know.
