

PRINCESS AS TUTOR.

Picture.:-

Bathing beauties of Miami Beach watch the Hula-Hula Dance. Before the bathing girls saw this they--

--were happy about their hips. Now they're just 'hippy'. They know if a girl--

--can hitch a hip like that she need never go to bed supperless. It's guaranteed to induce temporary--

--insanity in the most hardened sugar-daddy. Anyway--

--they all put on straw skirts (a piece of feminine strategy anyone can see through) and commence to acquire--

--the art of shooting the glad hip.

The Instructresses are two Hawaiian princesses. They-- --don't speak much English. Their favourite--

--phrase is Hips-hips-hooray !
