THE CONNAUGHT SHIELD.

STRETCHER BEARER COMPETITION.
R.A.M.C. ACTIVITIES AT ALDERSHOT.

Picture:-

The Connaught Shield ! To exhibit this--
--in the Mess is the aim of every--
--R.A.M.C. unit. These are the soldiers-- --whose weapons are for saving life, not taking it, and--
--there's much to learn. Efficiency of action while--
--carrying wounded from a battlefield--
--may mean the salvation of many of the more severe-- --casualties. These movements are part of the actual competition for the coveted Connaught Shield at Crookham Camp, Aldershot. Men playing the wounded soldiers have the easiest job.

Their pals daren't --
--drop them to-day. The chief spectator is the G.O--
--C., Aldershot Command, General the Honourable Sir J.
Francis Gatherne-Hardy, who--
--presents the Shield to the successful competitors, the Cameron--
--Highlanders. You know they're clever, these Scotmen.
