

MINISTER'S WEDDING.

Mr. Walter Elliott and Miss Katherine Tennant.
Ceremony at St. Baldred's.

-North Berwick-

Picture. :-

North Berwick is to-day the cynoschure of all society eyes. Miss Katherine Tennant,--

--half sister of the Countess of Oxford and Asquith, is to wed. The bride's--

--arival in a shimmering gown of cream glossy parchment satin causes many spinster pulses to pick up speed. As well it may, with its train of brocade encrusted with a florentine design in gold. Society people from-- --all over the country have filled--

--the pews in the not always over-filled Church.

As the bride enters the Church the weather is rather dull, but after the ceremony--

--when she emerges as Mrs. Elliott, she is greeted by the warmth of the sun, and the good wishes of the crowd.
