RIDING THE WIND.

GLIDER GIRL ARRIVES.
600-MILES BY ENGINELESS 'PLANE.

-Hester-

Picture :-

Towed through the air for 600 miles. From--
--an air-liner Miss Meakin's mother, sister, and brother--
--give her an air welcome. Miss Joan Meakin a talented-- --and intrepid air pilot concludes the longest towed glider trip ever attempted. She has flown from-- --Germany, bringing home a strong conviction that the Fatherland is fast becoming a nation-- --of potential air pilots. The glider is-- --down, and Miss Meakin is now facing a battery of cameras. Many times she has-- --piloted a 'plane through thunder, storm and gale, but this feat in an,engine-less glider has-- --made her famous overnight. She is now Britain's glider girl.
