ROLLING ALONG.

SKATING ON THE ROADS.
GLASGOW TO EDINBURGH.

-Scotland-

Picture. :-

Just as a change, a rollerskating race. They run better--

--when well oiled. It's a--

--marathon from Glasgow to Edinburgh. A long way to roll, but--

--it's cheaper than riding. It's a graceful--

--pastime, isn't it ? Or isn't it ?

There are twenty-six skaters. Their friends--

--ride bikes, and applaud their efforts. (Aha ! Enjoy your trip !)

The race is now beginning to go with a swing, and--

--Edinburgh is rolling nearer every minute. The leading man is W. Wallace,--

--a worthy name for a Scottish champion. The second--

--is E. Fraser. Mr. Wallace acknowledges many congratulations--

--and deserves them. There's nothing cheap about his 'skate'.
