CITY OF THE MARSHES.

"SABAUDIA"
INAUGURATED BY KING OF ITALY.

Picture. :- Twenty-thousand people acclaim a new city.
Its inauguration-- is attended by Italy's King, who is welcomed by-- --the new city's inhabitants. Two-- --years ago this land was marsh land, where malaria-- --reigned as its evil spirit. Now a flag on-- --the city's tower breaks over--

--a prosperous and healthily housed community. Before their--
--monarch march ten-thousand workmen, veterans of-- --the Great War, who have-- --reclaimed the land and created this modern city of-- --Saubaudia, as it has been named. Doubting Thomases said it--
--was impossible. There's Mussolini's answer - - a new city !
