Hunslet's conquering, cup-lifting, heroes come home again. Captain--

--Jack Walkington, and his men brace themselves for a more strenuous ordeal than winning the Cup. This is going to be their heavy day.

Thousands, and thousands, and thousands of people crowd the City Hall. It is here that the-- --happy overwhelmed players meet their biggest strain. They are to be officially welcomed back by the Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress, who are joining--

--them at tea. Young Jaek Crowther--

--the team's mascot is going to have tea too.
