(1). Picture:- Nurses of Hendon Cottage Hospital receive a-- --visit from Mrs. Stanley Baldwin, when the lady declares open the new--
--extension. It contains twenty beds, and cost twenty-thousand pounds.

Mrs. Baldwin got inside only just in time,--
--and on leaving hurries through a snow-storm to her car.
But the hospital is open. Success to it ! This--

(2) --coffee-stall, however, has been shut in. For fourteen-- --years Mrs. Whitney and her son have done a road-side-- --business in it. Now the land is being developed, and the-- --stall is isolated. Mrs. Whitney's counter-move is a ladder for customers to walk over. And now,--

(3). --what next ? Oh ! A nice next ! Diana the Huntress--
--in dozens, complete with bow--
--and arrow. The latest-- --American water sport. Sometimes they-- --hit the target--
--and sometimes they--
--take the toss. They know some mug will rescue them.
