MARCH ON ROME.

15,000 ATHLETES ON PARADE.

Picture:- Signor Mussolini arrives at the Piazza Venezia, to greet those who--

--are there to greet him. Fifteen-thousand athletes have--
--been brought together in one--
--great demonstration to--
--celebrate the 12th anniversary--
--of the now--

--historical 'March on Rome'. Banners from all over Italy are here - - athletes famous in every form of sport. Carsmen make a fine showing, and a strong contingent representing the British--

--imported game of football--

--get a special salute from the Duce.

Rugger players too are well in the orderly parade scrum. Twelve years ago, the--

--Italian people were wondering--

--what to do. Now they are told just--

--what to do. This is a unique--

--picture because the Duce smiles.

Perhaps he is smiling at these swimmers parading in the cold wind in costume.

Extraordinary precautions were taken to--

--guard the Duce. Police prevented--

--anyone not taking part from approaching--

--within half a mile of the parade.
