GUY! GUY!! GUY!!!

GUNPOWDER PLOT CELEBRATIONS.

Picture:- A lot of smart guys are knocking round here, and putting --

--their stuff across to the--

--poor youngsters of Dr. Barnardo's Home at Woodford Bridge. There's-- --one of the toughest of them, but--

--even he's not the prize-winner in--

--the Dr. Barnardo's Fifth of November GuyFawkes--

--competition. The first prize is gathered in--

--by a clever Scots guy, playing soundless bagpipes. A--

--most pleasant musical feature.

700 homeless boys have been looking forward for months past, and preparing for this great night,--

--and now it's here. Golly !

And 700 homeless boys are having the--

--time of their young orphan lives. Happiness to them.

Blackpool is preparing to warm things up a bit, too.

A--

--procession of enthusiastic Guy Fawkesers have begged, borrowed, or won a few tons of inflammable junk--

--for a bonfire to be crowned by Mr. Dogsboddy,--

--the body-line bowler. Lancashire's last word to Larwood.

The bonfire, built on the sands, by the way,--

--contains several hundredweights of old rubber,--

--250 tons of wood which is drenched with 300--

--gallons of oil. Pretty hot that - - even for Blackpool.
