

MARRIAGE IN MAYFAIR.

MISS BABA BEATON BECOMES MRS.R.A.HAMBRO.

Picture.:-

A beautiful bride who dares to be different.
For her marriage to Mr. Alec Hambro, Miss Baba--

--Beaton wears a headress rather like a nun. A-- --modified wimple. Marriages are made in heaven, I know, but the official--

--part of this one takes place in--

--Mayfair - - St. Mark's Church. The bride's beauty was not dimmed by the many lovely women who attended the Church. I noticed--

--Mrs. Charles Sweeney, Lady Bridget Poulet, among a host of--

--others. The single bridesmaid and the two Elizabethan pages made--

--a charming background--

--to the bride, who, by the way, carried--

--a bouquet of crimson roses in strong contrast to her white gown and wimple.
