

NEWS IN BRIEF.

- (1). Picture.:- The problem of slimming, like the fat itself, is continually growing. David Ainsworth,--
- Councillor of Preston, solves the riddle by riding from John O' Groats to Lands--
- End. 900 miles in 26-days. He succeeded in reducing his weight by 16 lbs, and he says he--
- enjoyed every minute of the ride. Nobody knows what the horse thought.
-
- (2). Picture.:- His Royal Highness The Duke of Kent visits Newington House, Edinburgh--
- a home for blind ex-soldiers and sailors. The Duke attended a meeting of the men in the large hall attached to the home, and spoke--
- to them at some length. Later he walked in the grounds with--
- Dr. Burns (Dr. Burns is the founder of the Home), met many inmates, and left amid cheers from the cheered sightless.
-
- (3). Picture.:-
- And while talking of the Duke of Kent, take a glance at the--
- house chosen by the Royal Lovers as their future--
- home, No.3. Belgrave Square, W. Details of decorating and--
- furnishings are at present being kept secret even, from screen journalists.
-