

DUKE OF YORK
AT ALDERSHOT.

EARL HAIG'S MEMORY HONOURED.

Picture.:-

St. Andrew's Garrison Church, Aldershot, is--
--being visited by many notabilities; the first being Lady Haig. A chancel--
--memorial window to Earl--
--Haig is to be unveiled by His Royal Highness the Duke-- --of York. The Duke receives several chaplains of His Majesty's Forces, afterwards entering the Church--
--for the ceremony of unveiling. The window--
--gives a representation of Christ's Crucifixion,--
--symbolising the soldier's sacrifice. His Royal Highness--
--is wearing the uniform of the Cameron--
--Highlanders, which the dog seems-- --to like, apparently. The Camerons, (to whom the Duke-- --is Honorary Colonel of the Fourth Battalion) are represented by a detachment from the Second Battalion.
No heed of wordy--
--attacks will dull the shining window ever bright for Earl Haig's memory.
