WEDDING PRESENTS.

FILMED BY SPECIAL PERMISSION.

Picture.:-

The Duke of Kent and Princess Marina permit you, - - no, invite you, to take a privileged peep at their wedding presents. One of the most pleasant, but slightly exhausting--

--tasks of the Royal Lovers' last few hectic days has been--
--to receive deputations bearing gifts. The whole empire--
--from Their Majesties downwards have supplemented-- --their warm affection by material and tangible offerings.
Craftsmen--

--of Britain, some previously unemployed, have used their arts--

--to create objects of great beauty for Their--

--Royal Highnesses' delight. Rare antiques of silver and glass have become graceful messengers, expressing--

--the high esteem in which the Duke and his-- --future Duchess are held. May the brightness of their future rival the brilliancy of their presents.
