By command of His Majesty King George V, an Order-- --almost as venerable again holds its annual service at St. Giles Cathedral, Edinburgh. The picturesque costumes whisk us back to the mediaeval days in which the-- --Order was founded. Sir R. Gordon Gilmour, and Sir Francis Grant are Gentleman Usher--
--of the Green Rod and Lord Lyon King-at-Arms respectively.
Official titles which have-- --a quaint ring to modern ears. This year a new Knight walks in procession - - Sir Donald Cameron of Lochiel -- marching with other names-- --bedded deep in Scottish history.
