(1) Picture. Women jockeys ride the last race in Holland's turf season.

There are only two entries, and it's a duel between-- --them. So a brace of the gentler sex--
--does a spot of real hard riding. Mrs. Paupit--
--a well-known Netherlands horsewoman keeps the-- --lead and wins, with a smile to spare. Now back--

(2). --to the free open roads of England.

Mr. Hore Belisha arrives to make this road open, although possibly--

--not free. It is a new portion of the Liverpool-Preston--
--road, by-passing Maghull. A fine thoroughfare constructed by the Lancashire--

--County Council. The first drive over it is by the-- --Transport Minister himself. Doubtless spotting places for a few beacons,--

(3). --to stop this sort of thrilling sport.
