

THE ROYAL HONEYMOONERS.

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF KENT AT HIMLEY HALL.

Picture.:-

We are privileged to show you the first of the after the wedding pictures of the Duke and Duchess of Kent. Their Royal Highnesses are spending a short honeymoon at the Earl of Dudley's--

--lovely residence, Himley Hall, Staffordshire. The Duke and Duchess were gracious enough to pose before--

--the camera. Ladies will doubtless be interested to know, if they do not know already, that the Duchess wears her wedding--

--ring on the third finger of her right hand, as required by the Greek Church. The Duke insists on Douschka, the Alsatian favourite, sitting as an intimate member of the group. An instance where the exception proves the rule - - three in this case being perfect company.
