HUNGARIAN REFUGEES.

Picture:- UNIVERSAL NEWS is again privileged to show you special pictures--

--of one of the--

--most heart rending European events of recent years.

Pictures of the refugees from Jugo-Slavia arriving over--
--the Hungarian border. Broken-hearted mothers clasping their children--

--to breasts which are--

--starved of nourishment and of hope.

Hungarian Police announce that the-- --town of Szeged will provide for them. For a moment--

--the refugees stand in silent prayerful gratitude, as the Hungarian national anthem is--

--played. (NATURAL SOUND TO FOOD SHOT).

These poor souls, homeless, and most without--

--goods, or their familiar household--

--shuttles are fed with soup and bread.

The officials are extremely--

--kind to these unfortunate people, victims--

--or political distortion. Names are checked, passports are investigated with--

--consideration. This man's passport is pathetic--

--evidence of the sad--

--situation. He fought--

--for the country which expelled him. At Budapest--

--girl guides help sisters of Mercy--

--to distribute good. This child was expelled without guardian,

Just labelled "To my--
--Mother in Budapest".
A child sweetens her--
--bitter lot. These awful--
--conditions have--
--now been improved by Britain's efforts by at the League of-- --Conference table. Expulsions are to--
--step. The-- --flow of human--
--flotsam and jetsam--
--has been arrested. But even so the cross still bears heavily upon these destitute souls.
