

£1,000,000 WORTH OF PETS.

SHOW OPENED BY LORD LONSDALE

Picture.:-

Lord Lonsdale arrives to open the-- --Home Pets Show at Olympia. This is--
--the first exhibition of its kind, and Lord--
--Lonsdale congratulates the organisers on its complete--
--success. It is a most varied, and in parts--
--weird collection. From Japanese veiled, tailed, fish to the--
--popular decorative goldfish in a dish.

Every sort of pet, with or without tails.

A goose which follows like a dog, and is much better mannered.

A parrot, with a Scots name, and beak.

A tame vixen called Trixie, who hates chickens.

Judging this miscellaneous lot for--

--winners is harder than--

--trying to find the lady, or lose her.