

(CONT).

(3). --of the world, she has shown these people her ugly night.

The crew of the--
--Norwegian Freighter 'SISTO', after fighting--
--mountainous seas of a mid-Atlantic gale--
--was rescued by the German--
--liner 'New York',--
--at tremendous risk to the heroic--
--rescuers. The Captain of the doomed--
--ship lives to testify to the great--
--heroism of the lifeboat's crew.

Never was honourable decoration more deserved.

(4). Picture:- This is an easier water job, and a--

--novel one. Mr. Iain Cameron-- --tries out his new hydro-glider on the River Tay, and the wonderful thing--
--about it is that it works. Its 80 horse-power--
--engine gives it great speed, even <sup>against</sup> across a difficult current, foreshadowing its practical transport value.

(5). Picture:- A tougher proposition is taken on by these footballers.

Girls stand up for their sex in a match--
--at Harmondsworth, and what a swell goal-keeper.

Men are playing with tied hands, so--
--the girls are not as nervous of fouls as they might be.
Several males lose--
--their balance, as bunches of determined females rush at them, showing--

[57059] 2P01141

(CONT).

positively no signs--

--of mercy. Despite the men's handicap, they won by four--

--goals to two. Downright unmannerly. This is not a chivalrous age.