

- (1). Picture.:- France's dare-devil motor cyclist. The man who has-- --high and balanced ambitions. What he can't-- --do on his motor-cycle isn't worth falling for. What a little pot-hole--
--in the road may do to him at any moment-- --is his business. Up on the highest part of his bike super-superstructure he ~~carries~~ along at some fifty miles per hour, hoping for the best. It is one of the most dangerous and hazardous feats ever attempted on a fast moving cycle. And I wish him a-- --happy and healthy New Year.

- (2). Picture.:- It's a sad New Year for many. Hundreds of humans have to give up their best four-footed friends because the licence money--
--simply cannot be afforded. Officials of the Dog's Home collect-- --scores which have been turned-- --loose on the streets. Some few of the outcast-- --animals may be bought and given new homes. The others, well it's a--
--sad little story, especially in view of the Scotsman's sentiment--
--"the mair I see of some people, the better I like my dog !"
