Cardinal Bourne, great Englishman, sincere churchman, head of the English Roman Catholic Church, is dead. He was born--

--seventy-three years ago at Clapham. His--

--rise from an unknown boy of middle-class parents to a prince of the Church is almost without parallel--

--in the annals--

--of the-Roman Catholicism. He was a bishop at--

--thirty-five, and a cardinal at fifty. The next--

--picture, this one, is one--

--of the last taken of His Eminence the late Cardinal Bourne.
