The first pedestrian carnival of the-- --year takes place at Powderhall, Edinburgh. Runners loosen up their - --legs, tick-tack men loosen up their arms. (I wonder if he's being rude),--
--and bookies padlock their purses, and stand by--
--like the runners--
--to be off !

Several well-known handicap men are competing,--
--and are watched for form.

Malcolm J. Dunn, the Australian sprinter is prominent--

--in this heat, and wins it fairly easily by a couple of feet.
