

WOMEN'S CROSS-COUNTRYRUNNING.

CIVIL SERVICE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Picture.:-

Girls of the Civil Service line--

--up for their fifth annual cross-country championship.
I am sure--

--they're glad to start running. It's a terribly cold--

--day, and exercise like this should soon turn blue knees into pink. The course is one--

--of 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ -miles over Wimbledon Common. Miss--

--M. Lush from the Ministry of Labour--

--wins the event for the third time.

The victress is precariously raised shoulder high, being honoured as 'Twinkle--

--Toes', the fastest girl in the Service.
