

BID FOR HOCKEY

TITLE.

LANCASHIRE V YORKSHIRE.

Picture.:-

At Crosby, near Liverpool, the Lancashire Hockey Team meets their--

--Yorkshire rivals for the Northern hockey title. The attendance does-- --not suggest that the result will set the countryside alight one way or the other.

But the Crosby ground is not too easy a place to--

--get at. Lancashire attacks repeatedly--

--but fails to score in the-- --first half. But Yorkshire gets one into the net. J. Ainsworth, Lancashire's captain--

--has done well with his team, and in the second half their excellent play bears fruit. They manage--

--to equalise. Now nobody holds the title. Cheshire, Lancashire--

--and Yorkshire share equal honours.
