

GERMAN CALL TO FRANCE.

PRE-PLEBISCITE AERIAL.

Picture.:-

Berlin names a new day ! Saar Sunday !
Massed demonstrations are held-- --in many places. This is the Sports Palace, and Herr Rudolph Hess, Deputy Leader of the party addresses a gathering--

--of scores of thousands. The gist of the speeches--

--expresses the hope that whatever the result of the Saar Plebiscite, France and Germany will bury the hatchet and live as neighbours in peace and amity. Dr.
Goebbels'--

--words were "that on our part, we are willing and determined to show ourselves worthy of the historie--

--honour to bury the past and begin a new and peaceful future.
