

SOMEWHERE THE SUN IS SHINING:

SUN ON THE SANDS AT CANNES.

Picture.:- (EFFECTS - AEROPLANE).

It is far more interesting down here. One gets--

--the full benefit of the sunshine, and the sun-suits.
While we shiver, these lucky people enjoy summer-like--

--weather, - and - er - oh, everybody's out of time but our Gladys!

The opening of the Riviera season is welcomed by--

--everybody who can afford the time,--

--and by a good many who can't afford anything - but have it just the same.

The Prom is crowded for the-- --sports. The obstacle race is good fun, even-- --if it does mean a mouthful or two of sand occasionally.

Amongst those present--

--is Mademoiselle Paris - just another Riviera attraction - and very--

--nice too. It is hard luck, but we ordinary people must just go on grinning and shivering.
