PLOUGHING MATCH.

EXPERTS AT BROXBURN.

Picture:-

Broxburn's annual ploughing match. A traffic event where white crossings and yellow-headed--

--Belisha beacons are unknown. Here's a trio of travellers who require no guiding to produce field crossings as straight as a die. Plough shares cutting a furrow which if -- --they are lucky has honour and glory at the-- --end of it, and free beer--

--in the Pig and Whistle. The youngest competitor is Jack Sommerville, only seventeen-years old. His ambition is to be a--

--farmer's boy and a ploughman. The competition finished, the horses get--

--a nose-bag full of whatever horses like best. While the experts stand in judgement on the work--

--done. A Silver Cup to be filled--

--and emptied later at the--

--local hostelry, or pub, is won by William Greenshields, Bully for Billy !
