

FLYING BOATS FOR SINGAPORE.

DEPARTURE FROM PEMBROKE DOCK.

Picture.:-

Out in Pembroke Dock, Plymouth,--
--lie four of Britain's finest flying-boats. In a-- --few moments they--
--leave for a trip of eight-thousand miles, and the--
--floating dock flags give them a message of "Good Luck and-- --Pleasant Voyage". Singapore is their destination, and Squadron-Leader--
--Lang. M.B.E. is in command.

The signal is given, and the four aces--
--from the Royal Air Force pack are on their way across--
--the skies of the world.

(EFFECTS - 7 'SHOTS').

Two-thousand miles over land, and--
--six-thousand over sea. Here's to smooth flying, and happy landings !
