

THE GAY CORONERS.

BACK FROM OVERSEAS.

---

Picture.

(BAND).

Crowds watch the arrival--

--at Edinburgh of the 1st Battalion, Gordon Highlanders. The Regiment has been away--

--from Britain for nearly fourteen years. They will now occupy Redford Barracks--

--in place of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders--

--under the command of Colonel J.M. Hamilton, D.S.O. The Regiment parades--

--before historic Edinburgh Castle, and takes over from--

--the Argylls. The Colours are taken into the Officers' Mess. The men have had many adventures--

--on the Indian Frontier, but have returned direct from their last--

--halt, Palestine. Relieving and relieved regiments think fit to congratulate each other. I suppose both think they are lucky.