

- (1). Picture.:- Another ladies' day at Epsom. There's a fine--
--line up of fillies to start on the cross-country run. The field--
--bunches a bit for the first mile, but passing the Grand Stands, the favourites draw ahead. The hurdle--
--is taken without mishap. No jockeys are thrown. Most runners hugging the rails, and slipping away easily.

Down the straight thunders Eileen Ferster. She romps--
--past the post several lengths ahead of the also-rans.

The owner is not present--
--to lead her in. She should worry.

- (2). Picture.:- There's enough worry here. A fire broke out in the-- --City of London Institution, Bow Road. The inmates, mostly bedridden--
--were rescued by nurses, who courageously stuck by their job--
--until all their charges were safe. Later the roof--
--collapsed, injuring several firemen.

But luckily no lives were lost. The Institution will need entire rebuilding.

- (3). Picture. And talking of hospitals, Glasgow students again raid Scotsmen's pockets for that carefully guarded baw-bee.

The outcome is that something--
--like eleven-thousand pounds will be given to local hospitals.
Several Scotsmen are now trying to get involved in hospital case accidents, to get value for their money !
