

BOB RUN THRILLS.

EXCITING MOMENTS.

Picture:- Bob-sleigh championships at Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany. These competitions for teams of--

--four are the most exciting--

--of the events of a big snow-sports day.

The sleighs gather almost incredible speeds, and cornering--

--round the sharp bend has its anxious moments. The flying--

--fours see the world from very curious angles--

--occasionally. In fact the use of the banks--

--forcibly reminds one of a--

--snow covered Brooklands. (PAUSE).

Another quartette starts. Some time must elapse between starters, or one might--

--catch another up and cause a 50 miles-per-hour crash,--

--which does make such a blood-stained mess of the nice white--

--snow. That's very nearly ! (PAUSE).

(PAUSE).

Yet another takes a chance, gathering frightening--

--speed down the--

--straight. (PAUSE).

Yes these people must have an important appointment--

--somewhere down the hill. (PAUSE).

Well they ought not^{to} be long now. (PAUSE)

A marvellous performance. Oh, very good ! Oh, better than ever ! Keep that one in ! Hide and seek in the snow. Very original. But what about that appointment ?
