

WALES V. SCOTLAND RUGBY MATCH

Cardiff, look you. Scottish rugger side is welcomed on---- the field, chiefly by Scotsmen----

---A lot of Welshmen, looking very determined, chase after the--- Scots. Their surprise defeat at Twickenham is still rankling. Claude Davey kicks off for Wales. Seventy thousand people help him. The Welsh crowd tell him what to do, and the Scots crowd hope he wont do it. The laether goes dead----- ---Line out just behind the Sc otish twenty five mark . Cliff Jones bolts through the pack, making a marvellous----- effort for a try. Beats the field----

---and gets there. Tremendous yells of delight from the Welshmen----

-- Vivian B.G.Jenkins, haunted by Twickenham, fails to convert----

--- Yells of Delight from the S cotsmen----- ---Wales is not being very polite to the ^{visiting} Gornickian team; it has spoiled several brilliant Scottish rushes and by half time ~~XXXXXXXX~~ has --been rude enough to score six points against the Northern visitors three. However, Cliff Jones has now retire d with an---- --- injured arm, and wished Scotland better luck in his unavoidable absence. The crowd, both sides, keep telling the world -----

---Listen to them. EFFECT-----

EFFECT-----

---Captain Fife fails to convert from a try by Shaw. Yells of---- -----delight from a tremendous lot of----

Welshmen. Excitement grows noisier if possible. Listen to it. (PAUSE)---

EFFECTS-----

Wales ten - Scotland six - and drinks all round.
