"UPPIES" V "DOONIES"

HANDBA' AT JEDBURGH.

Picture.:- The Jedburgh ball game is shortly to commence.

Anything made of glass is protected from bending. It's-- --a very famous game. Everybody in Scotland, oh, --
--Jedburgh, knows about it.

Mr. Halliburton, Town Clerk of Jedburgh throws--
--the first ball, and then everybody starts rough-housing everybody else to get hold of it. One might think-- --somebody had dropped a threepenny piece. This game is-- --played only once a year. That gives ample time for the injured to -- --leave hospital and play in the next match. If I could-- --tell you what it was all about, I would, but when I asked--
--why it was played, I got this reply. "Beh, nay particular reason. It's--
--juist because we've aye played it, ye ken !
