

VICEROYAL GARDEN

PICTURESQUE SCENES IN CALCUTTA.

Picture :-

His Excellency Lord Willingdon, Viceroy of India and-- --Lady Willingdon, hold their annual garden party. Over two-thousand guests assembled at the Viceroy's house at Calcutta. Lord and Lady Willingdon--
--accompanied by A.D.C.'s receive the distinguished visitors--
--European and Indian under the customary canopy which is a-- --feature of Indian functions. One of the most picturesque--
--figures is the Maharajah of-- --Bhutan. The Maharani is somewhere about, but--
--while the Maharajah does not object to the camera,--
--His Highness is not perhaps of the same mind, which is our loss.
