

HOW FRED PERRY LOST.
AUSTRALIAN TENNIS TITLE.

Picture.:-

Melbourne : The Australian Singles Championship Match. When the contest started, our own F.J. Perry held the title. These pictures show how the champion fell from grace and gave--

--the honours over to J.H. Crawford. In the opening sets, Perry took the game by 2-6, and after that experts--

--tell us that Crawford found his feet and his racquet,--

--and gained the ascendancy over his English opponent. At the beginning of the third set, Perry--

--showed his old form and sent the scoring up to a comfortable margin.

Crawford again made a spurt,--

--played a magnificent game, drew level and Perry again--

--took a back seat. Here is the--

--shot which lost Perry his title.
