

WORLD'S FIGURE SKATING

CHAMPIONSHIP.

ENGLISH GIRL'S FINE EFFORT.

Picture.:-

Skating champions meet at Vienna. The figure competition.
Skating ice--

--figures, I mean. The others are all perfect.

Gwyneth Butler, England, takes her turn in the test.
All the figures the competitors make in this--

--part of the test--

--are decided by the championship officials. Girls of all nationalities are competing, and the various tests are a revelation of grace, beauty of poise, and skill. Cecilia Colledge, a lovely English girl of only 14 years, attains a brilliance of performance which receives rapturous applause from the immense crowd of eight thousand--

--people. Cecilia now takes her free--

--skating test. The skaters may attempt any evolution they please--

--in this part of the competition. Her pirouettes are as near perfection as is possible--

--in an imperfect world. (PAUSE).

(PAUSE).

Cecilia just misses becoming figure--

--skating champion of the world, only conceding the honour to the--

--incomparable Sonja Jenie, the eight years title holder.
