FIFTH ROUND

THRILLS.

Thirty thousand people at Reading paid to-----

---pass through the turnstiles to see Reading v. Arsenal---

----Arsenal supporters make a joyful noise at-----

---the appearance of the Woolwich men-----

---James won the toss, and the London team kicked with----

---the wind, which was rather high for easy football-----

-- SIX SHOTS EFFECTS

----The half time score was---- nil for

----~~nil for~~ both sides. In fact the ----

----- final result was looking like a drawn game when Bastin scored -----

---from long range and saved Arsenal for the next round.

Second part - Norwich, v. Sheffield Wednesday

Norwich at home had----

---Sheffield Wednesday for their fifth round opponents. Norwich has been playing excellent football this season----

---and their hopes of -----

---beating the Northern team are running pretty high. The stiff wind is taken---

----advantage of by Wednesday's captain-----

-----This made them----

----very dangerous in the early part of the game but Norwich broke up their attacks and quite frequently took the play perilously near the visitors goal, giving the -----

---free grandstand pirates some-----

---- excellent close-ups of the play. -----

TWO SHOTS EFFECTS

Hooper was hurt but not seriously, and resumed play after receiving----

--some attention. Norwich played a brilliant game but----

----Sheffield Wednesday played a better one and won the round by One- nil.
