FESTIVAL OF THE LEMON.

HIGH JINKS AT MENTONE.

---

Picture.:-

Added to the increasing number of festivals to cheer jaded spirits,--

--is the Festival of the Lemon. This takes place--
--at Mentone.

All the pretty girls of the district, dressed in-- --charming national costume are bunched together in decorated cars, apparently to add sweetness to a sour subject. Everything is very good.

Even the cats are in luck. Confetti is-- --tossed about, but-- --when the lemons get used as ammunition,--
--the glory of the golden fruit becomes too obvious.
One lemon--
--on the tree is worth two in the eye. Some of the floats are rather-- --wonderful. There's a huge wheelbarrow carrying a load of mischief, and is the belle-- --of the lemon groves. Ask her a favour, and the answer--
--is a juicy one.
