(1). Picture.The 'Mauretania', grand old lady of the sea is-- --to be scrapped. She has lived all-- --her 28 years. Battled through fierce Atlantic gales, and steamed into harbour again, with flag-- --proudly flying. One person is sad at-- --her going. She was Captain McNeil's last ship.

(2). Picture.:- London is going stream-lined, except Mr.Cochrane.
 He is probably hatching plans for something more modern.
 Germany has completed--
 --her first stream-lined locomotive and--
 --train. Everything is shut--
 --in to discount air resistance, and her--
 --speed 105 miles per hour.

That, of course, must be outside built up areas.

(3). Picture.:- Princess Ingrid of Sweden has become engaged to the Crown-Prince Frederick, heir to the throne--
 --of Denmark. These pictures are a record of Her Royal Highnesses'--
 --last visit to England--
 --to see her royal grandfather, The-- --Duke of Connaught. The news of the engagement--
 --has caused great rejoicing throughout Sweden, and the whole country is en fete.
