(1). Picture:-

Army manoeuvres eleven-thousand feet--
--above sea level. What a place--
--to choose for a battle field.

Still, staff generals are notably high-minded,--
--and I suppose that--
--accounts for it. All this is going--
--on in the Austrian Alps,--
--but so long as the--
--shells are only--
--knocking off lumps of rock, there's--
--nothing to worry about.

This location is --
--on the frontier--
--between Italy and Germany. So let's hope nobody makes a boss shot,--
--and hits a German--
--Alp by mistake. It might start a political avalanche.
