

OLDEST HORSE RACE.

KIPLINGCOTES STAKES.

Picture.:-

The finishing touches to the winning post--
--of the Kiplingcotes Stakes, the oldest-- --and longest flat race held in Britain. The-- --youngest competitor is Miss Jean Farrow,-- --15-years old. The race is 400-years old, and-- --the course is four miles, but that's nothing-- --against it. The big crowd - - oh ! quite thirty - - perhaps more - - cheer the horses to the start, and the village of Kiplingcotes just seethes with excitement.

Pressmen take the start--

--and the movie cameras take the rest. The runners race--

--through copse, but the village policeman takes--

--no notice. Mr.J.W. Jackson's 'HAPPY LAD' struggles with Mr.B. Lazenby's 'HASTY' on the straight. 'HAPPY LAD' wins, and honour--

--is satisfied on the weighing machine. The winner gets eight-pounds,--

--but the second horse gets twenty-pounds.
No, I don't know why.
