

NEWS IN BRIEF.

What girls won't dare--
--these days isn't anybody's business. Here--
--is one who is--
--not satisfied with just flying, but sits on the top of the--
--wing to get a--
--better look round, and last, but not least, the lady--
--preferred not to have her name mentioned, and didn't even suggest that--
--she kept her nerve by taking quick cure capsules for control.

On this lovely Spring--
--morning crowds quickly gather--
--when word is whispered that Their Majesties the King and Queen are arriving back at Buckingham Palace.
The Eastbourne rest from state affairs is over. Many are--
--the details which require Their Majesties' attention.
There is no busier place just now than Buckingham Palace.
