NEW AIR LINES.

INAUGURATION CEREMONIES.

Picture.:-

The Croydon to Blackpool Air Service--
--is inaugurated by a bevy of film stars and--
--others. Others get--
--near stardom anyway!, as they leave Croydon and arrive--
--not quite so suddenly--
--as we have done--
--at Blackpool. Here the Mayor of--
--Blackpool wishes the screen beauties Hollywood salaries--
--and the new air-lines the success the venture deserves.

At Yeadon, a crowd--
--greet Mrs. Anthony Eden, who is to--
--inaugurate a new service between Leeds, Bradford--
--and London.

Mrs. Eden christens the machine with the usual waste of--
--good liquor. A Scotsman--
--in the crowd sobs, but Mrs. Eden does it again--
--with rather wet results--
--over the second machine. Thereafter Mrs. Eden, Lord--
--Grimthorpe, the Lord Mayor of Leeds, and--
--others fly to Heston on the first journey of the Service.

Air transport is going up.
