

THE STRESA
CONFERENCE.

BRITISH DELEGATES LEAVE ENGLAND.

Picture.:-

On the first stage of a--

--most important journey. Premier Mr. Ramsay MacDonald arrives at Hendon Aerodrome, and enters--

--a high speed Douglas rapide 'plane for Le Bourget. Sir John--

--Simon accompanies him. From Paris they will take a train for the Stresa Conference, which may-- --have such a far reaching effect upon the destiny of Britain and Europe. The sincere prayers of all earnest people go with them.
