

BACK FROM STRESA.

PRIME MINISTER ARRIVES AT HENDON.

Picture:-

A 'plane from Le Bourget lands at Hendon. It has carried Mr. RAMSAY MACDONALD on the-- --last lap of his journey from Stresa, and the Conference which, for the time being,--seems to have produced some optimism throughout the world. Important political observers have said that the prospect of war is further--

--away than it was before the Stresa Meeting. On the other hand, some say that it never was near, anyway.

Be that as it may, political business goes on as--
--usual, and the Premier is due at the House in an hour--

--to listen to the Chancellor outline his Budget. One thing is certain - - nobody wishes the Government's peace talks greater success than John Citizen.
