Picture.:- Westminster Cathedral is once again--
--the scene of the picturesque ceremony--
--"The Blessing of the Palms". Every Palm Sunday before the morning Cathedral--
--Service commences, thousands of people--
--gather to witness this unique sight. To-day--
--the Bishop of Lams, Monseigneur Myers--
--officialates. It is one of the-- --many impressive little happenings, a part of London life,--
--which many know about, but comparatively few ever see.

Picture.:-

An unusual sight of a different kind. These Middleberough-- blast furnaces have to be cleared away to make--
--room for more--
--modern types,--
--and this is--
--how it is done ! (EFFECTS).

Twenty-eight-thousand tons of building wrecked in three seconds.

And an old sweat said "Where did that one go to ?"
