

2-144141

ARCHBISHOP OF WESTMINSTER.
ENTHONEMENT AT CATHEDRAL.

Picture.:- "Only because of the Holy Father's command--
--do I again take up work in the turmoil--
--of the big world". So spoke Dr.--
--Arthur Hinsley, who-- --is just arriving for--
--his enthronement as Archbishop of Westminster.

The interior of the Cathedral is brilliant--
--with lighted candles, and vari-coloured--
--with flowers. For seven--
--years this highest ecclesiastic--
--of the Roman Catholic Church--
--in Britain held religious jurisdiction over nine-million--
--square miles of Africa. Ill-health compelled--
--him to retire. He became a Canon--
--of St. Peters, Rome. He, who was--
--once a Parish Priest.

Amid cheers, the Primate arrived--
--at his Westminster residence, and appears--
--on the balcony with hand upraised in blessing. This is the first ceremony of its kind--
--seen in England for 32--

2-124141

(CONT).

--years. The last enthronement was that of--

--the late Cardinal Bourne, whom Dr. Hinsley succeeds.