

THE PRINCE AT CARDIFF.

2 224141

For the Prince of Wales' Jubilee visit to Cardiff, Cardiff from----- -----Tiger Bay to Cathays Park does the thing well. Will----- -----these children forget this tea or this day? -----
-----I think not. What do you say about it, children-----XXXXXX

EFFECTS-----

-----Through ranks of densely packed citizens lined along Edward the Seventh Avenue comes Cardiff's impressive cavalcade escorting His Royal Highness to the Welsh National War Memorial. A memorial which in my opinion, is one of the finest in the British Isles. -----

EFFECTS-----

-----Members of the Welsh branches of the British Legion march-----
-----to welcome the Prince. Their standards making a brave----- -----show in the sunshine as they are----- -----cheered by the country's thousands. At the----- Memorial His Royal Highness is greeted by----- accompanied by--- --- the Grand Old Man of Wales, Mr Lloyd----- ---George, who for the moment has put aside his----- new Deal to do-----
---homage with his countrymen and the Prince to the war dead.---
---Standards are dipped-----
---and the Royal visitor salutes.
---This cavalcade now---
-----begins its journey to City Hall and it is-----
-----here that official Cardiff-----
---shines very brightly. Three guards of honour are drawn---
-----up. The Prince first inspects the naval guard from H.M.S.
Neptune-----

----Next, the Welsh Guards of which he is Colonel----
 ---and last but not least the Air Force Guard drawn from the City of Bristol squadron. None, not even----
 ---the Prince of the Realm, can fail--- ----to be impressed by the ---- ----wonderful pageant of the industries of Wales. It----
 ----equals if not----
 -- surpasses anything attempted during the Jubilee celebrations.
 The cars are excellent and live up to a great occasion.----
 ----After luncheon comes a visit to the Cardiff Arms Park ----
 ----where the schoolchildrens festival is in progress----
 ---- Hundreds of dancing children in Welsh costumes surrounded by thousands of ----
 ---the public show that the people of Cardiff are---- ----light to-day light of foot and light of heart. Long may they remain so.
